

Volunteer of the Month

Susie Enewold

Volunteering is nothing new to Susie Enewold, our April Volunteer of the Month, in fact she is so good that her sister, Cindy, “volen-told” her she was going to help with Spirit of Courage. That was the beginning of her love of volunteering for the Jennie Edmundson Foundation and she has never looked back.

What appealed to Susie about becoming involved in the Jennie volunteer program was the same shared value of caring and compassion for all people in our community. Susie really takes that value to heart. She is the executive director of Council Bluffs C.A.R.E.S. Boutique and Artist collective studio for persons with disabilities. She is also part of Optimist Club and active in church – both inspire her to continue her work with and for others.

Most recently you will have seen Suzie hard at work on decorating the tables and venues for the Dance to the Beat and Spirit of Courage events with her flower arrangements and little extra touches. What she loves about her volunteer time is all the new friends she is making that want to contribute to the greater good.

In her “spare” time she loves spending time with her family, loving on her new grandson and spending retirement at Table Rock Lake with her husband, family and friends.

Congratulations Susie, thank you for your volunteer services!
